HOW DOES THE PLAN WORK ?

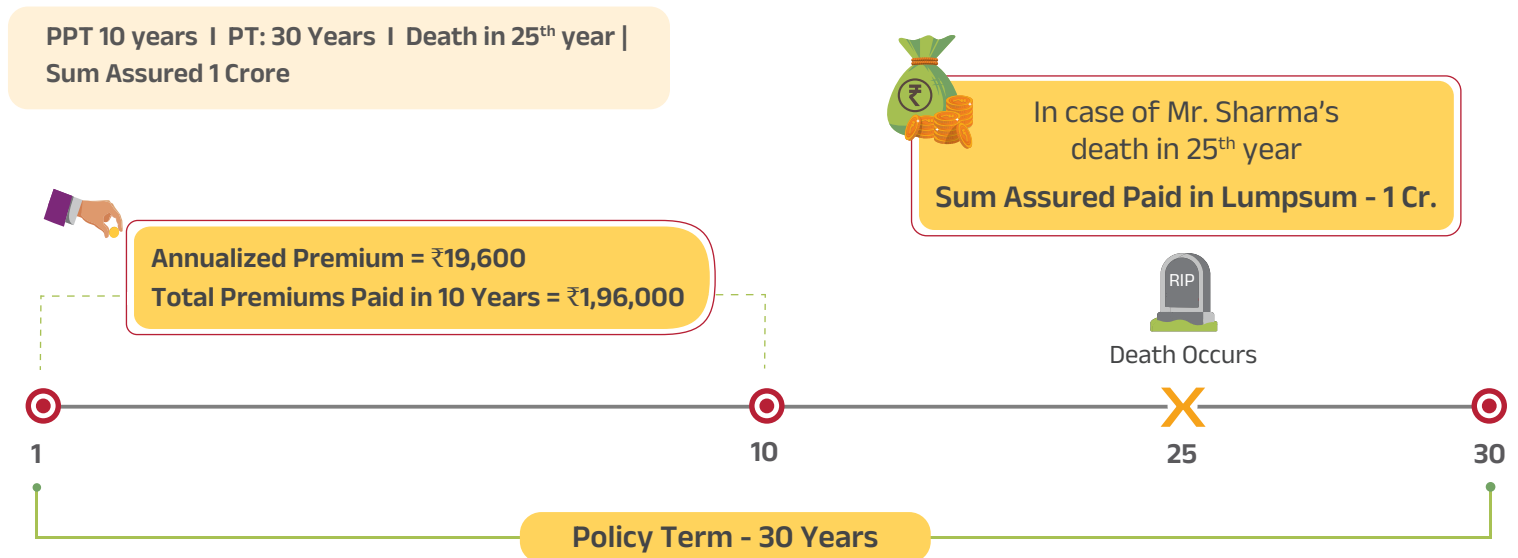

You shall be entitled to life cover for the chosen sum assured, at the inception of the Policy. The premium payment term and policy term once selected cannot be changed at a later date. Premium payable will vary depending upon the policy term and sum assured chosen.

Let's explore how does the plan work.

Under this plan, In the unfortunate event of the death of the Life Insured, anytime during the Policy Term, the Nominee(s)/legal heir(s)/assignee will be paid Sum Assured on Death chosen at Inception in Lump Sum, provided all due premiums have been paid.

- Let us take the example of Mr. Sharma, 30 years old, who opts for ABSLI Insta Digi Term Plan for a Sum Assured of ₹1 crore. He chooses a Policy Term of 30 years and Premium Payment Term of 10 years.

Unfortunately, he dies during the 25th Policy year. His Nominee is paid a lump-sum equal to ₹1 crore and the Policy terminates. The same is illustrated below:

The premiums shown are for Preferred Life.

Premiums are exclusive of taxes and First Year Discount (7%).

- Your choices at inception:

You will have to choose the Sum Assured, Policy Term, Premium Payment Term and mode of premium payment.

SURRENDER / PREMIUM DISCONTINUANCE / POLICY REVIVAL TERMS

1. What happens if you surrender the Policy?

The surrender benefit available under the product varies by the Premium Payment Term chosen. The policy will terminate upon payment of this benefit. You can surrender the Policy any time during the Policy Term after the Policy has acquired a Surrender Value.

For Regular Pay policies, Unexpired Risk Premium Value will be zero.

For Limited Pay policies, a Unexpired Risk Premium Value is available upon receipt of all premiums under the policy.

Where applicable, the Unexpired Risk Premium Value is calculated as under:

$$\text{Unexpired Risk Premium Value Factor} \times \text{Total Premiums Paid} \times \frac{\text{Outstanding Term (in months)}}{\text{Policy Term (in months)}}$$

- The Outstanding Term (in months) is calculated as the number of whole months from the date of surrender to the end of the Policy Term.
- Unexpired Risk Premium Value Factor is 35%

2. What happens when you discontinue paying your premiums before the Policy has acquired surrender value?

If you don't pay the due premium during the Grace Period during the Premium Payment Term, on expiry of the Grace Period, the Policy shall Lapse w.e.f. the due date of unpaid premium, and all benefits under the Policy, including the insurance cover, shall cease and no benefits shall be payable, however, you will have the option to revive the Policy within 5 years from the due date of first unpaid premium.

3. What happens when you wish to revive your Policy?

You can revive your Policy within a revival period of five years from the due date of first unpaid premium, subject to following conditions:

- Paying all outstanding premiums together with interest and/or late fees as declared by us from time to time;
- Providing evidence of Life Insured's insurability satisfactory to us
- Revival of the Policy shall take effect only after revival of the Policy is approved by Us basis the Board approved underwriting Policy and communicated to you in writing.

Once the Policy has been revived, on the effective date of revival, all benefits will be restored to their full value.

The monthly interest rate charged on unpaid premiums will be declared by ABSLI on June 1st of each calendar year and is determined as $(x+1\%)/12$ rounded to the next 0.5%, where x is the base rate of the State Bank of India. The current applicable interest rate, as declared on June 1st, 2025, is 1% per month compounded annually.

Any change in basis of determination of interest rate for revival can be done only after prior approval of the Authority. If a lapsed Policy is not revived within five years, the Policy shall be terminated, and no value is payable to you.

Your Options

Paying Premiums

You can pay your premium annually, semi-annually, quarterly or monthly mode (automated mode of payment). Modal loadings are given below:

Mode	Annual	Semi Annual	Quarterly	Monthly

The Policy will terminate on the earliest of the following events:

- a. The date of settlement of the Death Benefit; or
- b. The date of payment of the surrender Benefit, if any; or
- c. If the policy has not acquired an Unexpired Risk Premium Value, the date on which the revival period ends; or
- d. The date of maturity of the Policy; or
- e. The date of payment of free look cancellation amount.

Terms And Conditions

Free Look Period

You will have the right to return the policy within 30 days from the date of receipt of the policy, in case he/she disagrees with the terms & conditions of the policy. ABSLI will refund the premium paid post receipt of written notice of cancellation (along with reasons thereof) together with the original Policy document from the policyholder. ABSLI may reduce the amount of refund by proportionate risk premium for the period of cover and expenses incurred by ABSLI on medical examination of the Life Insured, if any and stamp duty charges at the time of issuing the policy in accordance to IRDAI (Protection of Policyholders Interests, Operations and Allied Matters of Insurers) Regulations, 2024.

Grace Period

Grace Period refers to the time granted by us from the due date for the payment of premium, without any penalty or late fee, during which time your Policy is considered to be in-force with the risk cover without any interruption, as per the terms and conditions of your Policy. A period of 15 (Fifteen) days from the due date of the first unpaid Premium for monthly Premium payment mode and 30 (Thirty) days from the due date of the first unpaid Premium for annually, semi-annually or quarterly premium payment modes will be allowed. The insurance coverage continues during the grace period, however, in case of occurrence of death or terminal illness or critical illness during the grace period, the Company shall be entitled to deduct the unpaid Premium from the Benefits payable under the Policy.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

GST, as applicable, will be extra and levied as per the extant tax laws.

Tax Benefits

You may be entitled to certain applicable tax benefits on the premiums paid and benefits received under your Policy. Please note that all the tax benefits are subject to tax laws prevailing at the time of payment of premium or receipt of benefits by you. It is advisable to seek an independent tax advice.

Exclusions

Prohibition of Rebates – Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended from time to time

No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the Policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a Policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer.

Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to ten lakh rupees.

Fraud and Mis-statement

Section 45 – Policy shall not be called in question on the ground of mis-statement after three years

Provisions regarding Policy not being called into question in terms of Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended by the Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015 are as follows:

1. No Policy of Life Insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after expiry of 3 years from
 - a. the date of issuance of Policy or
 - b. the date of commencement of risk or
 - c. the date of Revival of Policy or
 - d. the date of rider to the Policywhichever is later.
2. On the ground of fraud, a Policy of Life Insurance may be called in question within 3 years from
 - a. the date of issuance of Policy or
 - b. the date of commencement of risk or
 - c. the date of Revival of Policy or
 - d. the date of rider to the Policywhichever is later.

For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or Nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which such decision is based.
3. Fraud means any of the following acts committed by insured or by his agent, with the intent to deceive the insurer or to induce the insurer to issue a life insurance Policy:
 - a. The suggestion, as a fact of that which is not true and which the insured does not believe to be true;
 - b. The active concealment of a fact by the insured having knowledge or belief of the fact;
 - c. Any other act fitted to deceive; and
 - d. Any such act or omission as the law specifically declares to be fraudulent.
4. Mere silence is not fraud unless, depending on circumstances of the case, it is the duty of the insured or his agent keeping silence to speak or silence is in itself equivalent to speak.
5. No Insurer shall repudiate a life insurance Policy on the ground of Fraud, if the Insured / beneficiary can prove that the misstatement was true to the best of his knowledge and there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer. Onus of disproving is upon the Policyholder, if alive, or beneficiaries.
6. Life insurance Policy can be called in question within 3 years on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to expectancy of life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document basis which Policy was issued or revived or rider issued. For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or Nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which decision to repudiate the Policy of life insurance is based.
7. In case repudiation is on ground of mis-statement and not on fraud, the premium collected on Policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or legal representative or Nominee or assignees of insured, within a period of 90 days from the date of repudiation.
8. Fact shall not be considered material unless it has a direct bearing on the risk undertaken by the insurer. The onus is on insurer to show that if the insurer had been aware of the said fact, no life insurance Policy would have been issued to the insured.
9. The insurer can call for proof of Age at any time if he is entitled to do so and no Policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the Policy are adjusted on subsequent proof of Age of Life Insured. So, this Section will not be applicable for questioning Age or adjustment based on proof of Age submitted subsequently.
